

Jose Maldonado – Director of Governmental Affairs

Jose Maldonado, was born in Guayaquil, Ecuador from Portuguese decedents, at the age of 2 his family moved to New York City and later transitioned to Miami, FL. Jose currently works for Florida Power & Light Company as a governmental account manager for the customer service business unit, 5 of his 8 years with FPL where spent in Distribution, where he held various position with progressive responsibility project designer, project manager, reliability coordinator, and crew/contract crew supervisor. Jose graduated with a Mechanical Engineering Degree from Florida International University, and also holds a Masters of Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University. He and his wife Gabriela are residents of Jupiter, and have a 4 year old son.