

Luis Gonzalez

Luis Gonzalez is originally from Ponce, Puerto Rico. He studied at the University of Turabo in Puerto Rico and completed his BA in management with the University of Phoenix in Fort Lauderdale. Luis has held several management positions, the most recent as a General Manager for all Latin America Division in the Financial Area. He currently holds licenses as a mortgage broker and a registered Realtor with the Florida Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors.

In 1998 Luis and his family left Puerto Rico and relocated to West Palm Beach, Florida. In 1999, he became member of Habla, an organization that represented the diversity group within Wells Fargo. In 2006, he became member of the Puerto Rican Hispanic Chamber and shortly after was appointed by Santos Arroyo (President) and the board as the Director of the Ambassadors for the Chamber.